FILED BY

TUCKER & BISHOP,

Washington, D. C.

For Sale at the Office of the U. S. RECORD & GAZETTE, Washington, D. C.

Any application for pension on account of service in the war of 1812, heretofore made under the act of Congress approved February 14, 1874, granting pensions, &c., or under sections 4736, 4737, 4738, Revised Statutes, now pending or which stands postponed, will be reopened as filed under the amendatory act approved March 9, 1878, upon the claimant filing with the Commissioner of Pensions a statement, signed by him or her in the presence of two attesting witnesses, waiving his or her claim under prior enactments, and requesting that the claim may be adjusted under the act of March 9, 1878. In such cases new applications will not be required.

It is further provided that the claim may be adjusted under the act of March 9, 1878, by a person who has an application already on file for pension on account of service in the war of 1812, filed under the provisions of previous enactments, said new application will be consolidated with the old claim and taken for the waiver heretofore mentioned.

The attorneys in the claims heretofore filed will be recognized to prosecute said claims under the act of March 9, 1878, provided they call up and prosecute the case within six months after the passage of said act. A new attorney will not be recognized to prosecute any such claim unless, after having filed a power of attorney therein, he shall be called upon to furnish further testimony to establish the claim.

November 11th, 1910.

Mr. William Rule,
U.S. Pension Agent, Knoxville, Tenn,

Dear Sir:--

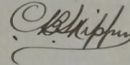

Referring to the enclosed Voucher will say, that, this old lady died on the night of Oct. 11th, and was buried by her nephew, with whom she had been living for some time, and who looked after her during her sickness. He has had considerable expense consequent on her sickness, death and burial, and he understands that there is some provision made for such expense. As he has never had any of the benefit of her pension money, but has done what he did for his love for and interest in her, he would be glad for you to re-imburse him so far as you are able to do under the law. His expenses were as follows:

Paid for Nursing during sickness,	$35.00
Paid Doctor,	15.00
Paid for Casket,	40.00
Paid for Burial Goods,	5.60
Paid for Digging	1.50
Paid for Conveyance to Grave,	3.00
	$100.10

If you can help him out any on this expense, please send Voucher in favor of J. A. Branch, for such amount as you can, as the expense is very large on him, if he has to pay all of it.

Yours truly,

November 11th, 1910.

Mr. William Hale,

U.S. Pension Agent, Knoxville, Tenn.

Dear Sir:

Reference to the enclosed voucher will say that, this one was expense. As he has never had any of the benefit of her pension money, but has done what he did for his love for and interest in her, he would be glad for you to re-imburse him so far as you are able to do under the law. His expenses were as follows:

Wife for	$25.00
Nursing during sickness,	15.00
Wife doctor,	10.00
Wife for clothes,	5.00
Wife for burial goods,	1.50
Wife for burial,	3.00
Wife for transportation to grave,	2.00
Total	$100.50

If you can help him out on this expense, please in favor of J. A. Branch, for such amount as you can, as the expense is

  2. Here allege full name of soldier.
  3. Here allege exact name of soldier.
  4. Here allege the name under which the soldier served.
  5. Here allege the rank under which the soldier served.
  6. Here state "enlisted," "volunteered," or "was drafted," as the case may be.
  7. Here state the number of days or months of service rendered by the soldier; fourteen days being the shortest period for which service pension is by law allowed, unless the soldier was actually engaged in a battle.
  8. Here insert the words "an honorable discharge," or "death," as the case may be.
  9. Here set a full description of soldier before, from the best recollection of the claimant, giving age, occupation, birth-place, height, color of hair, eyes and complexion, and any other particulars as to description.
  10. Here allege the name of the person who performed the marriage ceremony.
  11. Here state the official character of the person who performed the ceremony; i. e., whether a minister of the Gospel or a justice of the peace, &c.
  12. Here state whether the claimant or her husband (the soldier) had been previously married; and if either had, the name of the former husband or wife should be stated; and the date and place of the death of, or divorce from, the former consort should be alleged.
  13. Here insert the name of the husband on account of whose service and death the claim is made.
  14. Here state all the places of residence, if in a city, giving the street and number; and from and to what dates he resided at each place.
  15. If any application for bounty land or pension has previously been made, state the fact here, giving the date, and number if possible, and the act of Congress under which the claim was made; and designating whether it was a claim for bounty land or pension, and whether a warrant for the land or certificate for the pension was ever issued.
  16. Here insert the name of the soldier.
  17. Here name all the facts and circumstances which enable the witnesses to swear, from a personal knowledge, that the claimant is the widow of the identical person who rendered the service alleged in the claim.
- All services rendered by the soldier in the war for which claim is made, or in any other war, with the names of officers in each service, must be given in the application.
If the service was rendered as a substitute, the name of the principal for whom the substitute served should be stated.

Approved July 7, 1908.

INSTRUCTIONS.

1. Accrued pension is not a part of the assets of a deceased pensioner, nor liable for the payment of the debts of such pensioner.
2. Accrued pension is not payable as reimbursement in the case of a person pensioned on account of service if a widow or minor.
3. Accrued pension is not payable as reimbursement in the case of any pensioner who left sufficient assets to meet the expense of his sickness and burial.
4. Steps: (a) Bills of all expenses of last sickness and burial. If paid by the claimant for reimbursement the bills must be accompanied by receipts of the person to whom they were paid. (b) Bills of all expenses of last sickness and burial. If not paid by the claimant, bills of all expenses of last sickness and burial must be accompanied by receipts of the person to whom they were paid. (c) Bills of all expenses of last sickness and burial. If not paid by the claimant, bills of all expenses of last sickness and burial must be accompanied by receipts of the person to whom they were paid.
5. Each bill must show that the service was rendered for the pensioner on account of whom reimbursement is claimed. Bills which are forwarded become a part of the records of the Bureau of Pensions and can not be returned. Claimants should therefore secure duplicates of all bills forwarded by them. If such certificate is not in possession of the claimant a statement showing its whereabouts or final disposition should be made.
6. A careful compliance with these instructions will save much unnecessary delay in the settlement of the claim presented.

APPLICATION FOR REIMBURSEMENT.

(This application, when properly executed before some officer having authority to administer oaths for general purposes, should be forwarded, together with the relevant estimates and itemized bills of all expenses, to the Commissioner of Pensions, Washington, D. C.)
